Property Description

Rare Titled Beachfront Estate in Hermosa Palms, Costa Rica Set directly on the sand inside the prestigious gated enclave of Hermosa Palms in Playa Hermosa, this spectacular contemporary beachfront residence represents one of the rarest offerings in all of Costa Rica—true titled oceanfront within a private community. Designed for seamless indoor-outdoor living and dramatic Pacific views, the home spans approximately 3,300 square feet and captures the coastline from nearly every room. A striking infinity-edge pool stretches across the front of the property, creating a postcard-worthy transition between home and beach, while expansive decks and lounge areas invite sunset cocktails and evening gatherings under the stars. An outdoor shower and grilling station complete the beachfront lifestyle, perfect after surf sessions at Playa Hermosa's world-class breaks or long barefoot walks along the shoreline.
