Property Description

Located in an exclusive area known as Rich and Famous, this Central Jaco pool home has two large master bedrooms, each with en suite bathroom, a large kitchen, high ceilings, open floor plan and extra half bath. It also features covered terraces in both the front and back to enjoy tropical living in a very quiet tranquil neighborhood. The entire property is walled to provide privacy and security too. The home is air conditioned with three separate units to cool each room separately and the grounds are landscaped with a small dipping pool to cool off day or night. And the beautiful beaches of Jaco are only a short walk or drive away, so you are near to all sorts of fun beach activities from surfing, swimming and kayaking to simply strolling along the crescent shaped beach. Jaco is a booming beach town with a multitude of fun beach bars and restaurants that dot the shore, along with all sorts of shops, restaurants, nightlife, live music venues, art walks, parks, yoga, gyms and more along the main commercial corridor.
