Property Description

Welcome to Casa Colonial. This large, authentic Spanish style home is nestled in the colonial city of Nicoya, in the heart of one of the world's Blue Zones. Just a 5 minute drive to the conveniences of downtown Nicoya - it's shops, parks and hospital and convenient transportation that connects you to all of the peninsula attractions, such as beaches, parks, volcanoes, rivers and more, all via paved roads. Nicoya is a historic city with one of the country's original Catholic churches. With the history and the amenities the city offers, you'll fall in love more and more with Costa Rica and it's people, culture and traditions. The colonial house was design by a Costa Rican architect in the 90s. The home features, large living spaces, with high ceilings, large windows and a centrally located garden space create a bright and airy space. A wonderful combination of outdoor living and modern amenities give you a feeling of peace and calm throughout the entire home.
