Property Description

This property is a special opportunity which is located on a property nearly a full acre in size. It is the middle of the Hotel Gaia's Macaw Reserve in the tranquil area known as Valle Pura Vida . . . literally, "Valley of Pure Life". The skies and trees are constantly full of these glorious birds. This quaint duplex home offers a well built duplex with two, side by side, two bedroom, two bathroom apartments. . . .making four bedrooms and four baths. While simple in scope and finish, the apartments are spacious, have great light and the structure itself is solid . . .being built by one of the most experienced contractors in the area. This is an ideal property for someone looking for a place to live as well as the potential for some passive rental income. This is also an IDEAL opportunity for someone with a vision for a remodel, as it would be quite simple to transform these side by side apartments into a larger single family home.
