Property Description

This one-of-a-kind property in Ojochal features a modern home and two studio cabins in a gorgeous jungle setting with a peaceful stream flowing through the property. Recently remodeled in 2022, the original house is three bedrooms and the property features two new 1-bedroom villas recently completed, all of which are situated overlooking the year around stream that meanders through the 7,957 square meter (1.95 acre) forested landscape. Truly unique for having such a peaceful and private setting as well as quick and easy access to all the noted restaurants of Ojochal and the many other services the village has to offer. The Main House The original house on the property has recently had the kitchen and dining area remodeled and amplified to include a spacious rancho for outside living. The stylish contemporary indoors feature two bedrooms and a bathroom and an additional suite with private bathroom and entrance.
