Property Description

This Elegant Tropical Mansion is truly unique in every way. Every detail meticulously designed; every luxury accounted for in a wash of European decor. From the second you enter this residence you are surrounded by Mediterranean elegance ... whether the courtyard fountain, the sprawling master bedroom with spiral staircase leading up to a beautifully wood carved turret room office, or the baby grand piano room set off the main living area ... luxury abounds in every aspect. Even the pool area has been designed with every conceivable amenity, from its black bottom pool, to its social area with garden kitchen, and of course changing rooms, showers and facilities. The terrace is covered and the Pacific Ocean views are stunning. And just as an added touch, there is a bar and billiard room located on the second floor of the three car garage. From the majestic facades and edifices to the lush tropical gardens .
