Property Description

This beautiful 3 bedroom home is located in the cool and breezy hills of Platanillo, with in 4 minutes from the main highway you get to this brand new house that offers panoramic views of the valley and forest. An open floor plan, and huge living room space that opens up in order to take advantage of the beautiful gardens and valley. Hardwood ceilings, granite countertops, high ceilings, natural stone sinks are just a few features of this gorgeous property. The home is perched on the upper part of a 1.57 acre land that is surrounded by flat usable area, fruit trees, privacy and cooler temps. There is an adjacent lot that can be purchased which offers a large rolling pasture that can be used for gardening, horses, animals, or further development (extra home or rental units). Directly to the left of the property, there is a huge jungle canopy that borders a freshwater stream. This provides stunning views, privacy, and serves as a natural wildlife corridor.
