Property Description

The best property in the sought after mountain community of Lagunas. This property has two ocean, coastline, and mountain view building pads. Private road access that dead ends and only used by a couple other properties. Ideal parcel of land for a true estate home and property with multiple homes, fruit trees, and meandering trails through manicured gardens. The property also borders a private reserve with permission to create hiking trails with the few neighboring properties for personal enjoyment. Lagunas ASADA water is available and at the property line. The upper building site is unparalleled with any in Lagunas or the Costa Ballena! The views are all encompassing with sunset and coastline white-water ocean views towards Manuel Antonio to the west-north west.
