Property Description

Beautiful mountain cabin situated along the headwaters of the Barucito River just above the Nauyaca Falls for sale. Located in a pristine hydro rich valley rimmed by majestic mountain ranges, with rich fertile soil, perfect for growing your own food supply. Property is loaded with fruit trees and has several knolls that rise above the existing cabin, which is adjacent to the bank of the river. The property has an old historic suspension bridge crossing the river in front of the cabin, and amazing swimming holes downstream from the cabin. Truly a hidden paradise for those seeking peace and tranquility. The cabin is set up as a guest lodge with large decks, and rooms that could be rented to backpackers or run like a mountain lodge. Location is just upstream from the Nauyaca waterfall, one of the biggest and most amazing waterfalls in Costa Rica! Do not miss out on this unique opportunity!
