Property Description

Introducing Jardines Bianca Estate, a rare 5,000 m² tropical compound with two independent homes, resort-style outdoor living, and off-grid capability, located in a peaceful setting approximately 10 minutes from Playa Sámara and Carrillo Beach, and within easy driving distance of shops, services, and dining. Designed for privacy, flexibility, and multi-generational living, this expansive estate brings together generous interior space and a centerpiece pool environment; well suited for a private family retreat, hosting extended guests, or a low-density boutique hospitality or retreat concept (subject to local regulations, permits, and licensing). Main Residence (approx. 900 m² | three levels) Upper level: 3 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, configured as private sleeping quarters Main level: fully equipped kitchen and primary living and dining areas designed for everyday comfort and entertaining Lower level: 4 independent studio-style mini-apartments, each with a private bathroom, separate exterior entrance, and direct access to the pool area, complemented by a shared outdoor kitchen.
