Property Description

Imagine owning an almost-new home in a gated community in the hills just above the seaside village of Playa Samara. Built in 2013, Casa Raymundo is in the small countryside neighborhood of Linda Vista, with paved access 100% of the way to the house. Casa Raymundo is what you come to Costa Rica to enjoy, together with all of the conveniences you have come to expect. The ½ acre property includes the main house built to North American standards (but with a tropical flair, including wood ceilings, ceiling fans, tile floors, cross ventilation, etc.), a large rancho and plenty of room to add a pool. Stone accents on the interior, exterior and on the rancho provide a respite from the typical block and stucco look, and make this two bedroom, one bath, fully furnished and air conditioned house the perfect choice for your next home or vacation rental in Costa Rica. There is 100% paved access to the gated entry of Linda Vista, and the neighborhood offers multiple water sources for a year-round uninterrupted supply, rare for the Guanacaste mountain areas.
