Property Description

This luxury home in Hacienda Los Reyes, known as Casa Golf, is a sophisticated two-story residence designed by an internationally recognized architect and conceived to maximize outdoor entertainment, comfort, and natural integration. With 580 m2 of high-end construction on a 1,205 m2 lot, this property stands out in La Guácima, Alajuela, for its premium finishes, modern layout, abundant natural light, and a privileged location within one of Costa Rica's most exclusive gated communities. At the heart of the home is a spectacular private pool seamlessly connected to the main social areas, creating the perfect indoor-outdoor flow for gatherings, family events, or relaxed living. The bright living and dining areas feature large floor-to-ceiling windows, excellent cross-ventilation, and direct access to the terrace and garden. The spacious gourmet kitchen includes double-height ceilings, a central island, granite countertops, and stainless steel appliances—ideal for those seeking a modern culinary environment.
