Property Description

This 417 m² flat lot is located in Huacas, approximately 20 minutes outside of Tamarindo and within easy reach of several of Guanacaste's most popular beaches. Positioned near the center of town, the property offers convenient access to everyday essentials including grocery stores, restaurants, banks, and local services. The land is level, making it easy to work with for a future home or small development project. Its location provides a practical balance between accessibility and proximity to the coast, with Tamarindo, Playa Conchal, Flamingo, and Avellanas all within a short drive. Huacas continues to grow as a central hub for the surrounding beach communities, making it a functional choice for both full-time living and rental opportunities. The area attracts a mix of locals, expats, and visitors due to its location and connectivity. This property presents an opportunity to own land in a well-located area of Guanacaste with steady demand and access to some of Costa Rica's most desirable coastal destinations.
