Property Description

Located within the gated community of Jaboncillos in Escazú, this single level residence offers a blend of classic architectural character and generous living spaces designed for both daily life and entertaining. Mediterranean Hacienda Residence is organized around a colonial style central courtyard with columns, arches, a beautiful water fountain and natural stone flooring, allowing natural light to move easily throughout the interior while maintaining privacy and a strong connection to the surrounding gardens. An eight meter tower ceiling at the entrance hall sets a sense of scale that carries throughout the home, complemented by open views. Two double height living rooms with travertine floors create flexible gathering spaces that open toward a corner terrace and a larger main terrace finished in natural stone, surrounded by arches and romanesque columns, overlooking the city and surrounding mountains.
