Property Description

Experience elevated coastal living in this exceptional golf-front residence located within the exclusive Reserva de Golf community of Hacienda Pinilla, one of Costa Rica's most prestigious resort destinations. Positioned directly on hole 4 of the Hacienda Pinilla Golf Course, Casa Guana Lux enjoys a uniquely private setting along what locals refer to as the "Monkey Trail" — a lush, forested corridor situated between the pool terrace and the fairway. This protected green zone creates a beautiful natural buffer between the home and the golf course, offering enhanced privacy while serving as a natural habitat for local wildlife, including howler monkeys, tropical birds, and other native species. Surrounded by mature tropical forest and expansive fairway views, the home captures the essence of refined indoor-outdoor living. Designed with a modern tropical aesthetic, the residence seamlessly blends architecture with nature, allowing natural light, warm breezes, and lush greenery to become part of the everyday experience.
