Property Description

Costa Juice presents a turnkey lifestyle brand opportunity in Tamarindo, Guanacaste, Costa Rica, offering either full acquisition or a strategic partnership structure. Established in 2015 and located in Plaza Tamarindo, the business combines a recognized brand identity, proprietary recipes, and a fully equipped boutique space designed for immediate operation within one of Costa Rica's most active commercial settings. The brand is rooted in a portfolio of 100% original, registered recipes developed in collaboration with a Miami-based vegan chef. This foundation supports a consistent product offering shaped by defined nutritional balance and flavor development, contributing to a cohesive and recognizable customer experience. The physical space has been designed as a premium boutique concept, with high-end equipment and an operational setup that allows for efficient day-to-day management. Its placement within Plaza Tamarindo positions the business in an established commercial environment with steady foot traffic and a defined customer base.
