Property Description

This unique dual-residence property offers a rare opportunity to own two distinct homes on a single lot, combining modern living with flexible use and built-in income potential. Surrounded by mountain views and natural privacy, the setting is well-suited for families, multi-generational living, or owners looking to offset costs through long-term rental income. Casa Senara (Main Residence) is a modern 3-bedroom, 3.5-bathroom home designed for comfortable, full-time living. The layout emphasizes indoor-outdoor connection, with large windows bringing in natural light and framing the surrounding landscape. The home features a private pool, covered outdoor living areas, a functional kitchen, and well-defined interior spaces. Additional highlights include a 2-car garage, dedicated laundry room, and furnished interiors for an easy transition. Casa Árbol (Second Home) offers a completely different experience with its distinctive round design and elevated, treehouse-inspired feel.
