Property Description

Tucked within a serene enclave of Senderos, this exceptional homesite offers the rare feel of a private estate, surrounded by nature and designed for true tranquility. Larger than surrounding properties and bordered by scenic walking trails and protected green space, it provides natural buffers that enhance privacy, openness, and a deep connection to the landscape. The setting is ideal for a spacious single-level luxury residence with seamless indoor-outdoor living. A seasonal waterfall just beyond the property adds a unique and captivating natural element, bringing movement and sound to the environment. Surrounded by mature tropical greenery and cooled by soft, indirect light, this homesite captures the essence of refined jungle living—just minutes from the beaches, dining, and lifestyle of Tamarindo.
