Property Description

Pacifico Lot 24 presents a rare opportunity within one of Playas del Coco's most sought-after gated communities. Offered at $359,000, this corner lot stands out for its excellent location and for how uncommon it is to find vacant lots available in Pacifico today. The property features approximately 12,583 sqft of mostly flat land, making it an excellent option for building a custom home with greater ease. It is a build-ready homesite within an already established and highly desirable community. Adding even more value, the sale may include architectural house plans already approved by Pacifico, which is a major advantage for buyers who want to move forward without starting the planning process from scratch. Whether for a primary residence, vacation home, or long-term investment, this property offers location, exclusivity, and potential in one of the area's most desirable addresses. A truly rare opportunity in Pacifico.
