Property Description

Located in Condominio Cafetos, El Tejar, Cartago, this single-level home offers comfort, security, and a functional layout for families looking for a cozy and practical living space. With 4 bedrooms, including a primary bedroom with a private bathroom—it's ideal for comfortable living or converting an extra room into a home office for remote work. The open-concept living room, dining area, and kitchen create a bright and airy environment perfect for family gatherings. The home also includes an independent laundry room, a two-car carport, and a low-maintenance backyard, offering an excellent balance of convenience and comfort. The condominium provides exclusive social areas and green spaces, while its strategic location allows you to reach downtown Cartago in 15 minutes, with easy access to San José, schools, shopping centers, and essential services. An excellent option for families seeking tranquility, security, and quality of life.
