Property Description

Perched at the highest point of the ultra-exclusive El Tesoro development, this immaculate 4-bedroom, 4.5-bathroom estate commands sweeping views over Playa Tamarindo, Las Baulas Marine National Park, and the rolling waves of Playa Grande. Built by Tamarindo's most esteemed construction professional, Jeff Hutton, and thoughtfully designed to the discerning specs of the owners, the home blends architectural excellence with refined coastal luxury. A private driveway leads to a serene courtyard entry and spacious garage, setting the tone for the privacy and prestige that define the property. The moment you step inside, your eyes are drawn across the valley to the endless Pacific, an unforgettable first impression that captures the essence of paradise. No expense was spared in the home's construction or design. Handcrafted wood accents, expertly poured concrete flooring, vaulted natural wood ceilings, bespoke furnishings, curated art, and top-of-the-line electronics create a sophisticated yet welcoming atmosphere.
