Property Description

Large building property with valley view surrounded by local protected green zone. Cool breezes from the ocean during the afternoons keep this special place fresh and enjoyable all day. During the wet season this property enjoys a special view of the Nosara valley where you can watch the rain storms flow down through the area out to the ocean. All services including water and power are available upon request to local providers. Easy to build and located in the "Hollywood Hills" of our community this is a fantastic investment or even a great spot to relax and enjoy life in the tropics. For more information about this beautiful property contact Coldwell Banker Surfing Nosara today.
