Property Description

Positioned in the hills between Sámara and the village of Santo Domingo, this contemporary container residence sits on a 1,999 sqm property (21,517 sq ft) less than ten minutes from Sámara Beach and its restaurants, shops, and everyday amenities. Elevated above the coastline, the setting offers open ocean views, tropical breezes, and a quiet perspective over the surrounding landscape. The home spans approximately 248 sqm (2,669 sq ft) across three levels and is designed from four interconnected shipping containers. Clean architectural lines are paired with open circulation and flexible living spaces, connected by light metal staircases that complement the contemporary industrial design. The dwelling is approximately 85 percent complete, providing a strong structural and architectural foundation while allowing the future owner to finish the interiors according to their own vision.
