Property Description

Located in the growing city of Liberia, this well-maintained home sits in Barrio La Victoria, a desirable residential neighborhood known for its strong property value and continuous development. Built approximately 10 years ago, the home has been carefully maintained and remains in excellent condition. The property offers spacious living areas designed for comfort and practicality. The house features 3 bedrooms, providing ample space for a family or for anyone looking for a comfortable residence in a peaceful neighborhood. Its solid construction, secure environment, and well-kept condition make it a move-in-ready home. One of the main highlights of this property is its prime location, with convenient access to shopping centers, schools, medical services, restaurants, and the main roads that connect the city. Whether you are looking for a primary residence or a real estate investment, this property represents a great opportunity in one of the most promising residential areas of Liberia.
