Property Description

This eco-lodge, surrounded by nature, is located just 45 minutes from Liberia Airport in Guanacaste. It is designed to minimize its environmental impact while providing guests with a unique and sustainable nature experience. This eco-lodge incorporates sustainable building materials, alternative energy sources, and conservation practices. This natural gem is surrounded by beauty and wildlife. One of the main features that makes this property unique is the 1-km-long river that meanders along one of its banks, providing an idyllic setting for nature lovers to enjoy breathtaking views and refreshing swims. The local fauna also adds a special touch, with monkeys, sloths, horses, pigs, geese, toucans, and a variety of other native animals. In addition, there are three marked trails within the property that allow visitors to walk and share this magnificent place with the native flora and fauna, offering them a unique experience.
