With mixed residential and commercial zoning, this property offers flexibility to build a home, vacation rental, or a small tourism project. Water and electricity are already in place, and the building permit is fully approved—your project can begin right away. Playa Grande is renowned for its stunning white-sand beach, world-class surfing, and its location within Las Baulas Marine National Park, a sanctuary for leatherback turtles. The area continues to grow in popularity among investors seeking nature, beach proximity, and long-term value. Conveniently located just 1 hour from Liberia International Airport and 20 minutes from Tamarindo Airport, this is one of the few remaining buildable lots so close to Playa Grande.
