Property Description

This is your life. Howler monkeys calling through the canopy. Scarlet macaws gliding overhead in the golden morning light. Horses nickering softly in the pasture. Gentle breezes drifting through your tropical garden. Costa Rican coffee steaming in hand as you pad barefoot to your favorite outdoor sanctuary. Sweeping views of mountains, pastures, and jungle stretching before you. Welcome to Cerro Grande—where Costa Rica land becomes a lifestyle. Build your custom estate on an exceptionally spacious lot designed for the life you've imagined. With on-site stables and equestrian facilities available*, these generous, mostly-flat parcels offer the rare combination of privacy, versatility, and room to breathe—far beyond what typical gated communities provide. Lot 1 is fully fenced, mostly flat but with a couple gentle rises. There are some trees, but the lot is easily buildable. It borders along the public road, the estate's roads and lot 2, pasture and forest views.
