Property Description

Beachfront Property Nestled along the tranquil coastline of Playa Coyote, this elegant single-level residence offers a rare blend of tropical design, privacy, and direct proximity to the sea. With the Pacific Ocean just steps away, the home invites a lifestyle rooted in nature, comfort, and understated sophistication. Spanning 699 square meters, the property is designed with ease and flow in mind. The tropical modern architecture features clean lines, natural textures, and open interiors that seamlessly connect with the outdoors. Large windows and sliding glass doors flood the home with natural light while framing gentle ocean views and lush garden surroundings. The house includes four spacious bedrooms and five well-appointed bathrooms, all fully furnished and equipped to support both full-time living and effortless vacation stays. A versatile TV room can serve as a media/game lounge or be adapted into an additional bedroom, providing flexibility for family or guests.
