Property Description

The old Ceciliano hotel is a place well known by the locals in Manuel Antonio. This was one of the first hotels in the area, and boasts a privileged location just 5 minutes from downtown Quepos and the Marina Pez Vela, and merely 15 minutes from the gorgeous beach and Manuel Antonio National Park positioning it within one of the most strategic Manuel Antonio real estate corridors. The old Ceciliano hotel is also within walking distance to the bus stop, pharmacies, supermarkets, and all the delicious restaurants that make Quepos a tourist hotspot. The hotel was closed some years ago and is no longer in operation, but its premises still keep 18 rooms with private bathrooms which can be remodeled and brought back to life as a boutique hotel or hospitality venture. Alternatively, the Old Ceciliano boasts great potential for various types of businesses, such as long-term apartment rentals, storage warehouses, or commercial spaces.
