Property Description

Located in Los Angeles de Rivas, in the heart of the Chirripó region, this whimsical mountain home is set within one of Costa Rica's most sought-after highland landscapes. Expansive mountain views define the setting, with Parque Internacional La Amistad forming the home's natural backdrop. As Costa Rica's largest conservation area and a UNESCO World Heritage Site, the park brings a lasting sense of scale, protection, and visual depth to the property. The home is private and well positioned for family living, while remaining close to many of the area's most valued attractions. Within a short distance are the trailhead to Costa Rica's highest peak, Cerro Chirripó, Kapi Kapi restaurant and health food store, Finca Brinca Pottery Studio, and a range of cultural and outdoor destinations that define daily life in the valley. Architecturally, the home is thoughtfully designed with a warm and expressive use of Costa Rican hardwoods throughout.
