Property Description

Looking for an affordable ocean view home with pool? This house has large open spaces in each of its rooms making it ideal for having guests and entertaining. On the first floor there is a full-size kitchen which is open to the dining and living room. On this same level there is a second living room with great views, a bathroom and a laundry room. The second level has two very spacious bedrooms that open to the covered porch which has ocean views. On this level there is also a large bathroom and walk in closet. The house is a solid building with strong cement walls and a metal roof in good condition. The builder had a liking to slate rock so you will find this throughout the home. But the large glass windows allow lots of natural light to come inside and brighten the rooms. And the views from the porch are spectacular. This is the perfect place to sit and watch Scarlet Macaws fly by. This property is located just an hour from the San Jose airport giving it easy access.
