Property Description

Casa Terraza is a charming and luxurious home which combines privacy, views and a central location at an amazing price. The home gets its name from its spacious patio with in-built infinity pool, surrounding vistas and a tropical garden below. It is situated on a hillside with expansive sea views, in an area of Manuel Antonio referred to as Las Brisas because it is bathed in gentle sea winds. The home is nestled into its own tropical garden with a host fruit trees including - mango, papaya, soursop, lime, and banana. You can wake up to the calls of howler monkeys, observe the white-face and (endangered) squirrel monkeys, sloths and colorful birds from your patio. Many birds, including toucans, drink from the pool! Jasmine, frangipani and Elang-Elang trees emit wonderful perfumes at dawn and dusk. The property is only a short distance from the world-class Manuel Antonio beach and park. Buses in either direction (to Quepos or Manuel Antonio) are a 3 minute walk away.
