Property Description

Are you looking for a Lifestyle Change in a beautiful part of Costa Rica, where you will have a project that earns you a living and leaves you time to enjoy all that this area has to offer. This amazing Lodge is a fully titled 4.5 acre estate with 130 metres of rainforest river frontage, has 4 houses plus laundry and general storage building, surrounded by beautiful well established gardens and a rainforest wood with paths to the river. The present owners run the property as a boutique lodge, but the estate is easily converted to purely residential or numerous commercial uses. As a business, with good internet ranking and healthy traffic, it is completely turnkey and has room for expansion. A unique property for the area due to the size, topography, meticulous maintenance and private location yet within easy access to all amenities and beaches. All buildings are architect designed and were built to the highest standards under architect supervision.
