Property Description

Experience the opulence of Costa Rica's natural beauty with our luxurious beachfront properties in Playa Junquillal. This prime, oceanfront real estate offers unique investment opportunities that include a planned Retreat Center, located right next to an established hotel and the tranquil community park. Embrace serenity in your private slice of paradise while contributing to local turtle restoration initiatives. We are excited to present two unique beachfront properties, including a planned Retreat Center, located side by side on Playa Junquillal. These properties for sale are nestled in the heart of the area, next to an established hotel and just a few hundred meters from the community park and turtle restoration project.

What You'll Love: Two Beachfront Lots: This represents prime, oceanfront real estate. There's even a 26,000-m2 (6.42-acre) future development property at the back, guaranteeing that there will be no construction there for years to come.
