Property Description

This one-of-a-kind hostel is a thriving hospitality business and lifestyle investment, perfectly located just a 3-minute drive from Marino Ballena National Park and its pristine beaches. Restaurants, shops, and a newly opened supermarket are only a short walk away, offering guests both convenience and a true jungle escape. Over the past months, the owners have invested heavily in upgrades, transforming the property into a modern, functional, and highly attractive destination: •Two new modern dormitories with each 6 and 4 bunk beds and air conditioning. •A formerly unused house has been completely renovated, now featuring a communal kitchen, modern bathrooms, and stylish gathering areas. •A dedicated staff area upstairs with its own kitchen for improved operations. •Landscaping and gardens have been redesigned, creating a lush and inviting atmosphere. •General maintenance throughout the property, including fresh paint and updated interior and exterior décor.
