Property Description

Conveniently located just 90 minutes from the western suburbs and international airport, Altos de Montserrat is a premier destination that exemplifies Costa Rica real estate at its finest. This exclusive community offers convenient access, security, luxury, and breathtaking ocean views, making it an ideal retreat for families looking to experience the beauty of the Central Pacific Coast. As you pass the entrance to Los Suenos in Herradura, you will find the elegant controlled entry to the development on your left, and immediately the sense of arrival exudes both privacy and exclusivity. Once inside the perimeter, you drive up the road past the first phase (sold out) of Altos de Montserrat, as well as the impressive common areas which include social areas, outdoor dining, expansive pool, cabanas and sundeck. The condo site is situated at the end of the road, tucked along the hillside where the first level of the building will host the private amenities for the condo owners and guests, including an infinity edge pool, gym, coworking space, massage rooms, BBQ, and lobby area.
