Property Description

Accessible Highland Retreat Near Lake Cachi Tierra Serena, an expansive 80-acre estate nestled in the stunning Orosi Valley of Costa Rica, offers an unrivaled combination of natural beauty, privacy, and unspoiled landscapes. The property is a paradise of towering eucalyptus trees, crystal-clear streams, and ephemeral waterfalls, with miles of trails winding through forested hillsides and meadows. There are three private entrances along the well-tended property frontage. Upon entering the main gate, a half-kilometer scenic drive meanders alongside a stream toward the main residence, surrounded by lush native flora. The grounds are beautifully landscaped with an array of fruit and flowering trees, creating a perfect setting of mountain, valley, and lake views. Blue morpho butterflies flit among the flowers and greenery, while over 200 bird species, including majestic yellow-tailed oropendolas, vibrant tanagers, and colorful toucans, either reside at or regularly visit the estate.
