Property Description

This is a chance to buy a very successful business in the hospitality industry. It is a group of five restaurants. They all offer people the option to eat in the restaurant take their food to go or have it delivered to their homes. These restaurants are in some of the popular beach towns in Costa Rica: Manuel Antonio, Uvita, Santa Teresa and there are two locations in Playa Jacó. One of the locations in Jacó is in Jacó Walk and the other one is right in the middle of downtown Jacó. The people who cook the food are from India. They came here on a special permit so the Indian food is real and it is made by chefs who have a lot of experience. All of the restaurants are ready to go. They come with everything you need. This includes the people who work there the decorations that look like they are from India and the modern systems they use to handle sales. The business makes a lot of money.
