Property Description

Partly titled construction 11 ha Project of a Luxury Boutique Hotel or wellness project in the Tortuguero National Park and Barra de Colorado Wildlife Refuge, Province of Limon, Costa Rica. The jungle and Caribbean landscape that surrounds it will envelop you and you will wait for the time to sleep to really rest and when you sleep, the time to wake up that will be accompanied by a million sounds from the surrounding jungle and the murmur of the Caribbean Sea that dwells around. If you want to rest, read, think, enjoy... this is your place, where silence is heard. This region is part of the 5 most sought Tourism destination of Costa Rica to visit. The flora and fauna in the area is rich, wonderful, and unique, presenting several species in danger of extinction, such as several sea turtle species, like the green turtle, the Carey turtle, the Leatherback turtle, as well as mammals and birds as rare as the Jaguar as well as the Tapir, and one of the rarest birds the beautiful Agami Storch.
