Property Description

Nestled in the peaceful countryside of Palmares de Pérez Zeledón, this unique property offers a rare combination of privacy, abundant nature, and authentic Costa Rican living — surrounded by lush tropical vegetation and enriched by a year-round creek flowing directly through the land. Set on approximately 2,093 m² of beautifully usable land, the property features a spacious home with approximately 300 m² of construction, offering 4 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms designed for comfortable family living or a tranquil retreat surrounded by nature. One of the property's most special features is the natural creek crossing through the land, creating a refreshing and serene atmosphere while enhancing the tropical landscape with the soothing sound of flowing water. The grounds are filled with mature fruit trees and edible plants, allowing you to enjoy a self-sustainable lifestyle immersed in Costa Rica's natural abundance.
