Property Description

This farm is one of the last few ocean view farms left to develop in Tamarindo, sitting in what is known as cerro Zonchinche at 133 meters above sea level, it is near Langosta and Borders Hacienda Pinilla. The farm has 47.3 hectares with internal roads cut in and features amazing ocean views of Tamarindo and all the way to Langosta, Avellanas, Playa grande and Pinilla. Tamarindo downtown is only 5 minutes away and you can access the farm by different points, like directly from the new road of Los Jobos which eventually will connect to the Hacienda Pinilla access to Tamarindo. Also from Langosta or from downtown Tamarindo as well. The farm has a lot of tropical dry forest and native trees which makes it a really special place right in the heart of a beach town. The international airport is 45 minutes away and Tamarindo has its regional airport at only 10 minutes from the farm. This has a great potential for a development with ocean views and a lot of nature while being so close to all the commodities the town has to offer .
