Property Description

Set within the natural landscape of Rancho Cartagena, this 1-bedroom container home offers a private, well-executed living space designed for simplicity and connection to its surroundings. The layout includes a comfortable bedroom, full bathroom, and a defined kitchen and living area, offering separation between spaces for everyday functionality. The interior connects directly to an outdoor patio, creating an easy extension of the living space while maintaining privacy and structure indoors. A private pool anchors the exterior, surrounded by mature fruit trees and greenery that provide shade, privacy, and a natural setting. The outdoor space is functional and inviting, with room to further enhance or expand. The property also features a dedicated laundry area and ample usable land, offering clear potential for expansion—whether adding additional structures, guest accommodations, or extending the existing footprint.
