Property Description

Nestled in the serene hills of Río Seco, Guanacaste, Villa Meridiana is a remarkable private estate where timeless architecture, sustainable living, and breathtaking natural surroundings come together in perfect harmony. Situated on an expansive 23,000 m² property, this extraordinary residence offers sweeping ocean and sunset views, exceptional privacy, and the rare opportunity to enjoy a fully self-sufficient lifestyle without compromising comfort or sophistication. The main residence features three spacious bedrooms, distinguished by impressive hardwood beams and elegant colonial architectural details that infuse the home with warmth, character, and authenticity. Thoughtfully designed throughout, the home balances classic craftsmanship with the relaxed elegance of Costa Rica's coastal lifestyle, creating inviting living spaces that celebrate both beauty and functionality. Complementing the main residence is a fully independent two-bedroom casita, complete with its own kitchen and living areas.
