Property Description

Pacific Residences are the reason people move to Costa Rica. An exclusive gated community that is surrounded by epic tropical nature. Upon driving along the paved road through the majestic gate, you will be greeted by blue iguanas, Howler monkeys, rare birds, and deep green foliage. If that is not enough, a 5-minute drive takes you through the quaint town of Villa Real and to the world-famous beach of Tamarindo. Tamarindo is the hub of all that is Costa Rica. Restaurants, surfing, shopping, a beautiful beach, sailing, and water sports all await. This beautiful, tree-lined corner lot is on the main road through the complex. All of the gorgeous houses located in Pacific Residences are single-family homes and it is a true neighborhood experience. There is even a central park area where hanging a hammock and relaxing under the Guanacaste trees is a part of the experience. Adding to the desirability of this location, 3 private international schools are a short drive away.
