Property Description

Set on nearly 2.5 acres of fully fenced, lush jungle grounds, this extraordinary estate was designed over a decade ago by renowned Costa Rican architect Scott Woods, whose work is recognized for blending tropical beauty with purposeful, enduring design. Casa Escondida is a true multi-use estate. Whether you're looking for a multi-generational family compound, a private wellness or retreat center, or a premium vacation rental investment with serious income potential, this property delivers on all three. It is offered fully furnished and turnkey, ready from day one. Located just 1 hour and 15 minutes from Liberia International Airport (LIR), minutes from supermarkets and international schools, and only a short walk from the center of Santa Rosa. The main residence offers 2,852 sq.ft. of living space across 3 bedrooms, 2.5 bathrooms, and two separate living areas. At its heart is a spectacular floating rancho-style living space suspended above the jungle canopy, designed to be enjoyed fully open-air with screened comfort or completely enclosed and air-conditioned.
