Property Description

Located within the prestigious Peninsula Papagayo, Costa Rica's most exclusive resort-residential enclave, this distinguished coastal estate presents a restrained yet commanding architectural statement. Completed in 2014 by acclaimed architects Robert Barnes and Christopher Coy, the residence reflects a disciplined approach to proportion, permanence, and harmony with the surrounding landscape. Set on a 3,580-square-meter parcel, the property offers 6,900 square feet of interior living space arranged across a primary residence, a private guest casita, and a separate garage structure. The main residence includes three bedrooms and three-and-a-half bathrooms, while the independent casita provides three additional bedrooms and three full bathrooms, allowing guest privacy. Separate staff quarters include one bedroom and one bathroom, complemented by a powder room serving the main living areas.
