Property Description

Located within Las Ventanas, Playa Grande's most established gated community, Casa Jungla is a contemporary four-bedroom home designed with a clear understanding of how people want to live in Costa Rica. The architecture is simple, modern, and highly functional. High ceilings, natural wood finishes, and expansive glass doors create bright, comfortable living spaces that remain connected to the surrounding landscape. Every room benefits from natural light, privacy, and views of the tropical gardens. At the center of the home, the kitchen, dining, and living areas open seamlessly to the terrace and pool, creating a layout that works equally well for everyday life, entertaining, or vacation stays. The flow is effortless and practical, with each space thoughtfully positioned and proportioned. Designed with Playa Grande living in mind, a mud room serves as the ideal entrance for a sandy surfer.
