Property Description

Experience elevated single level living on the fourth floor of Latitud Diez, a discreet 22-unit luxury condominium building surrounded by gardens with controlled access. Located just steps from restaurants, shops, parks, and essential services in San Rafael, Escazú, this home places you in one of San José's most desirable neighborhoods. Spanning approximately 220 square meters, this expansive one-story residence offers an exceptional layout designed for both comfortable family living and sophisticated entertaining. The generous combined living room and dining room create an inviting social heart, while the modern kitchen flows effortlessly from these spaces. A striking interior terrace bathes the home in natural light and provides a peaceful indoor retreat perfect for reading, plants, or morning coffee all within the privacy of your own unit. This property represents the type of premier offerings available in Costa Rica real estate, combining elegant design, privacy, and excellent investment potential.
