Property Description

Tucked onto approximately 38 acres of lush tropical rainforest in Costa Rica's breathtaking South Pacific region, and surrounded by mature rainforest, this remarkable ocean view estate offers an incredibly rare blend of privacy, natural beauty, and thoughtfully designed retreat infrastructure. From the moment of arrival, the experience is deeply grounding. The sounds of nature gently flowing creeks, tropical birds, and rustling rainforest surround the property, while daily wildlife encounters with toucans, scarlet macaws, monkeys, sloths, and blue morpho butterflies create a constant connection to the natural environment. This is a level of immersion rarely found among traditional homes for sale in Costa Rica, where the natural surroundings become an integral part of everyday life. Well maintained winding graveled paths through the jungle, elevated canopy views, riverfront settings, and expansive ocean vistas give the estate an atmosphere that feels both peaceful and transformative.
