Property Description

Set in a beautiful natural environment with excellent accessibility, this impressive 25,700 m² property offers a unique combination of fertile land, river frontage, breathtaking mountain views, and versatile development possibilities. Located directly along the Interamericana Sur (Route 2), the property enjoys easy year-round access while maintaining a peaceful setting surrounded by nature. With approximately 250 meters of river frontage, it provides a rare opportunity to create a private estate, retreat center, hospitality project, family compound, or agricultural venture. The existing structure of approximately 300 m² offers ample space and could be adapted for a variety of uses, including a restaurant, event venue, retreat facility, workshops, or other creative projects. Adding to its appeal, the property currently features approximately 700 plantain plants and around 300 chickens, providing an established agricultural component and the possibility of continued self-sustainable production.
